

Ivan Miletić, First Vice President

Ivan is currently serving as Director External Affairs South East Europe and International Affairs Eastern Europe Region at Philip Morris International. His responsibilities include government affairs, regulatory affairs, external and internal communications as well as managing a team of External Affairs professionals in six markets of the South East Europe cluster. Since joining PMI in 2009, Ivan held different roles including Director Government Affairs Eastern Europe Region based in the Lausanne, Switzerland Operations Center (2018-2019); Director Corporate Affairs (2013-2018) and Corporate Counsel (2009-2013) based in Belgrade, Serbia.

Prior to joining PMI, Ivan worked as an attorney at law in private practice in several regional law firms in New York and New Jersey where he practiced in the areas of commercial litigation and arbitration, advising various clients in the private sector. He is still a member of the New York bar. Prior to joining the bar he was a judicial law clerk in the Superior Court of New Jersey in the chambers of the Honorable Thomas C. Brown, J.S.C. during the 2000 – 2001 judicial term. This year marks his 20th year of professional experience both in the legal sector and the public affairs arena.

Ivan holds a Juris Doctorate from the Seton Hall University School of Law in Newark, New Jersey which he received in 2000. He completed his undergraduate studies in 1997 at the Pfeiffer University in North Carolina with a Bachelor's degree in Communications and Literature.